Flying Clubs Visit Here

The Mobil Oil airstrip was a busy place for an hour or so Sunday afternoon with the arrival of several aircraft taking part in a cross-country rally. Members of the Lacombe and Ponoka flying clubs took part in the event and at the time the photos were taken about eight aircraft were on the ground with others overhead and others taking off between landings. Twenty to twenty-five aircraft were scheduled to take part in the meet.

Found Items Await Owners

Corporal Brian Thorstad, who arrived here recently from Northern Alberta to head the RCMP town detail, reports that a number of unclaimed articles that were found and turned in to the RCMP office are waiting claims by owners.

Among unclaimed articles are the following: a sum of money, found about four months ago; a child's riding jeep, found about three months ago; a new tire mounted on mag type rim, found one month ago; a child's training bicycle, found three weeks ago; and a girl's bicycle, found about ten days ago.

Owners may claim articles by calling at the RCMP office and identifying.

Present Trophies At 4-H Banquet

The wind-up banquet of the Drayton Valley 4-H Beef Club was held in the Legion Hall on Friday, November 6th and was followed by the presentation of trophies for accomplishments during the past year.

Wayne Thomas was Master of Ceremonies and introduced the guest speaker Mr. Rick Andrews, Regional 4-H Specialist with the Department of Youth.

Mr. Andrews spoke on 4-H in the future and held out the promise of greater achievements. 4-H was organized primarily to develop agriculture, he said, but in the past ten years the membership has increased greatly with clubs moving to projects outside agriculture in many cases.

Mr. Andrews noted that a number of changes are ahead for 4-H and felt that the changes will encourage greater membership and lead clubs into an even greater range of activities.

He was optimistic about the future for both 4-H and youth.

Ballet Company To Visit Here

The Alberta Ballet Company will make its first appearance in Drayton Valley on Sunday November 22nd at 2:30 p.m. in the St. Anthony's School. To help counter the misconception that all young people don't know how to spend their time constructively, a group of eleven young dancers is coming to prove otherwise.

Collectively, they're members of the Alberta Ballet Company, this province's first semi-professional dance company.

Most of the dancers have years of training and performing under their belts and are well equipped to dance for audiences of any age. There's no generation gap in dancing.

Top honors trophy is presented to Kim Hanson by Principal Barry Richer at the Drayton Valley Junior High Awards Night last Wednesday.

Elks Install New Officers

New officers are: Howard Cathrea, Exalted Ruler; Earl Kelly, Past Exalted Ruler; John Suffron, Leading Knight; Jim Samborski, Loyal Knight; Ernest Chaput, Lecturing Knight; Les Wall, Treasurer; Dale Cartwright, Secretary; Bob La Forge, Publicity Director; Patrick Halko, Historian; Jay Hazzard, Chaplain, Gerald Solomon, Esquire; Walter Turtiuk, Inner Guard; and Robert Schiek, Tyler.

As his first official act following installation, Mr. Cathrea presented an honorary life membership to Arnold Lloyd. Mr. Lloyd was lodge treasurer for over twelve years.

Airport Meeting Well Attended

Between 100 and 150 interested residents were present in St. Anthony's School last Thursday evening to hear details of the proposed airport north of town.

Industrial Development Co-ordinator Mr. Don Vanstone covered the topic in depth, reviewing events leading up-to-date and outlining advantages of an airport industrial complex of the type proposed for Drayton Valley.

Industrial-airports were reported as a very modern concept and a visionary step into the air age by communitys in a few areas in Canada. Mr. Vanstone expressed optimism at the possibility of the complex bringing industry to Drayton Valley.

Mr. Jack Snary of the Industrial Development Branch of the Provincial Government also spoke on the subject and stated that Drayton Valley, if the complex went ahead, would be among the first in Canada to prepare to meet the changes of the future.

Use of business aircraft will double in the next five or ten years, he said, along with a great increase in air freight. Industrial air parks in a few other places, he said, are prepared to meet the challenge of today's changing industrial conditions.

Town Engineer, Bill Tuttle, a member of the Industrial Development Board, requested permission to present a brief that supported opposite views to several items in the material offerd in Mr. Vanstone's presentation.

Drug Program Well Attended

A crowd of approximately 200 people attended the film "Marajauna" on Tuesday, November 3rd at Frank Maddock High School. Parents unanimously want more educational material on this subject.

Other programs are now being set up with more films, speakers, and former addicts to state their views.

Watch for dates in about two weeks time and please attend.

If we educate ourselves, we will be more apt to discuss the issue more realistically with our children in friendly, family discussions and thereby overcome the communication gap.

He said a striving by young people to become effectively involved in government, school and community was an indication of a new awareness of the world and the place in it for youth.

Mr. Kenneth MacKenzie, Club Leader, reviewed the year that saw ten members take an active part in a number of projects. He noted the change in format of the club which is now a mutton and beef club, rather than straight beef.

Reorganization of the club was held recently and fifteen members are enrolled for the new season.

Commenting on the change, Mr. Andrews noted that sheep clubs are at present few and far between in the province. However, others are soon to be formed, he said.

A Natural Gas Service Reminder from Northwestern Utilities, Limited

Give Your Heating System a Safety Check-up

Normally, your natural gas appliances and heating system operate with little care or maintenance. However, an annual check-up will ensure full efficient operation and complete comfort. To help you inspect your heating system, use this handy guide.

CHECK YOUR CHIMNEY:

Loose mortar, soot, and other debris may accumulate at the base of the chimney obstructing free passage of the products of combustion. Watch that ice and snow on top of the chimney do not cause blockage.

RANGES SHOULD NOT BE USED TO HEAT A ROOM:

Do not use your kitchen range to heat a room. Use a proper heater designed for the purpose.

CHECK ALL VENT PIPES:

Examine all appliance vent pipes. A dislodged vent may block the end of the pipe, or permit exhaust to enter the room.

BE ALERT TO DANGER SIGNALS:

Smarting of the eyes, nose irritation and unpleasant odors are indications of fumes in your home.

FRESH AIR SOURCE:

Be sure there is a source of fresh air in your home. Do not keep your house "air-tight". Your gas appliances, like you, need air.

P.S. Note re furnace filters!

Now's the time to check filters on your natural gas furnace. Filters that are clogged with dust and dirt cause heat loss, and can cause damage to your furnace. Furnace filters should be replaced or cleaned at least twice a year.

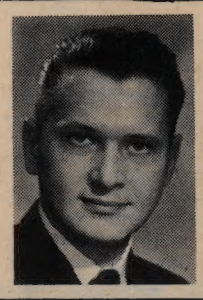
Report From Parliament Hill

By Allen Sulatycky, M.P.



In a month so dominated by the terrible events which occured in Quebec, some very significant happenings during October were relegated to a lesser status than would normally have been the case.

For Western Canada in particular, the last few weeks have been extremely eventful. Perhaps no similar period has provided so much news of such impact on and importance to the West.

The first major announcement was the approval by the Federal Government of the largest ever sale of natural gas to the United States. Economically this will mean about two billion dollars to Canada, much of it to Alberta.

The announcement of eight new Senate appointments several days later, was of equal but different importance. Heading the list of new appointees was Honourable Ernest Manning, former Premier of Alberta, and one of Western Canada's finest spokesmen. But the appointment of Senator Manning was not the only choice of interest to the West. Others appointed included, Williams McNamara, former head of the Canadian Wheat Board; Gil Molgat, former leader of the Opposition in Manitoba and Ed Lawson, a leading trade union official in British Columbia.

The new Senators from the West will be not only effective spokesmen for our region, but also will bring with them backgrounds which have never before made their presence felt in the upper House of Parliament.

Next followed the announcement that Canada has recognized the government of Mainland China. For the West, good relations with the states which border the Pacific, are essential. The recognition of the Peking government will undoubtedly strengthen our role as a Pacific nation.

On the heels of this announcement came the news that Canada had made the biggest one-year grain sale in history to the Chinese. On top of earlier sales and some still expected, this was the most welcome news in two years to not only farmers, but all residents of the Prairies. From a very bleak position, economy of the Prairies in a matter of weeks took on a rosy tinge.

Capping the news-packed month was the tabling on October 29 of a proposal for a new grains policy for Western Canada. When implemented it will provide grain producers with a guaranteed income from their grain produce. More importantly it should place the business of grain growing on a sound systematic basis.

It was, indeed, a month of profound importance to the West.

For the next three weeks I will be representing Canada at the annual NATO assembly at Brussels and the Hague. In my absence, I have asked Rev. Murray McBride, MP for Lanark-Renfrew-Carleton to provide my office with a report to be sent to you.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor
The Western Review
Dear Sir:

Attention Parents -- Have you ever seen your young children scaning through the smutty literature in the stores while buying candy? It happens, right here in Drayton Valley everyday before and after school and at lunch hours too.

Quoted from an article written by a leading psychiatrist, Dr. J. Rosenbaum of Santa Fe, New Mexico: "Pornography can interfere with the healthy sexual adjustment of young people. It can cause great harm to children and is also harmful to teen-agers until they get more mature, also children under ten years of age suffer most from the indiscriminate use of pornography."

Could we ask the merchants of the town to place this kind of material up higher out of the reach of the little ones, because the temptation of looking through the magazines is too great where they are located right now.

I've realized it would be impossible to stop the sale of this literature completely as we understand it brings in a good profit for the merchant. But, must the store keepers make "dirty dollars from dirty books"?

Rebels Win Two Games

Stony Plain Eagles had the Rebels down 5 to 0 after the first period in last Thursday night's game. The Rebels came out of it in the second period to play hockey at 5:44 when Dan Davie scored from Doug Hall and Barrie Ness. At 6:00 Ness from Davie and Hall. At 6:16 Dan Davie scored his second in the same shift from Wayne Garding. This must be some kind of a record. At 9:30 Henry Hodgson from Sam Belcourt made the score 5 to 4 for Stony Plain. At 6:28 Hodgson from Belcourt to tie the score. Rebels went on to win with what proved to be the winning goal by Terry McGowan unassisted at 11:29 and cinched it up at 19:19 with Barry Ness scoring from Frank Roggeveen. A real crowd pleasing hockey game with lots of good hitting and skating.

On Sunday the Rebels hosted the Westlock Eagles, the new entry into the league and gave them a very rude welcome in an exhibition game. Westlocks first game this season. The Rebels skated to an easy 9 to 6 win. Barry Ness picking up a hat trick. Next hockey action at home for the Rebels will be Saturday, November 14th at 8:30 p.m. and Sunday the 15th at 1:30 p.m. against the Stettler Imperials for their league home openers. Thursday the Rebels are on the road at Camrose for the league opener.

Consider
Basically the carrot is a simple, natural product. You can enjoy it raw and crisp. Or consider variations like the "carrot cocktail" of health-food fame . . . or tender young carrots smothered in butter and served with gourmet food. Yes, there's more to the carrot than meets the eye. Just consider the process behind the carrot on your plate — the costs of farm machinery, fertilizer, marketing and distribution. Electricity is a "natural" product too. But bringing its convenience home to you involves construction, maintenance, sophisticated planning and engineering. While the overall cost of living has increased dramatically, the price of electricity is still one of today's best bargains. And finding a bargain these days is pretty difficult! So — when you consider inflation — think about the carrot on your plate — and in the field . . . and about electricity, another "natural" that goes through many stages before it gets to you!

Miss Louise Bouffard is home after a month at the coast where she visited relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Tucker have joined the Ancient and Honourable Order of Grandparents. Gordon and Val Tucker have a brand new daughter.

The Anglican W.A. is having its bazaar and turkey supper this year on November 21st in the Elks Hall. This is Drayton Valleys oldest annual event and one to which we all look forward with pleasurable anticipation.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Landsiedel are here for a week from their home in Swan Hills. Mrs. Landsiedel will visit with her daughters, Mrs. Wanagas and Mrs. Jorgensen while Mr. Landsiedel does some hunting. Deer and moose are plentiful in the Swan Hills but there are no elk.

Speaking of elk, Mr. Virgil Batke, one of our well known Nimrods, bagged an elk this season bearing a trophy set of antlers.

Mrs. Jerry Donovan has undertaken a very ambtious project in preparing a Christmas concert for the Legion members. There will be plays, carols and recitations. Takes one back to the school concerts which were always presented before Christmas. What a lot of effort and what a lot of fun.

From the Edmonton Journal we learned that Mrs. Barney Hystad passed away in the city recently. Mrs. Hystad was the former Nan Methyn and both she and her husband have many acquaintances here.

The Health Unit was moved to the new County Building on Industrial Road during the weekend.

Congratulations are in order for Mrs. Delia Dupperron who has completed her fourth course in Duncan Ceramics at Shelby, Montana. Mrs. Duperron is now a graduate of Duncan Ceramics. She has forty students in her classes here.

It is suggested that a shortcut method of learning to dance the Watusi is to tie your show laces together and do the foxtrot.

ALBERTA IN ACTION

PLANNING FOR THE FUTURE

Looking ahead in a high-rise

One of the directions taken in senior citizen housing under a program first formulated by the provincial government over ten years ago and now guided by the Alberta Housing Corporation offers new far-reaching benefits to hundreds of our senior citizens. The swing is to a choice in accommodation for the more active, older men and women who look ahead to apartment living in the mainstream of high-density areas of a city with rents within range of their pension payments. A planned high-rise project is well under way in Edmonton. This year, another 16 storey apartment block, the first of its kind in Calgary, opened its doors to 300 residents. Designed for low-income families with rents as low as $34 a month, the majority of the tenants will be senior citizens. Similar developments spearheaded by the Corporation are slated for other major centres.

At mid-year, initiating procedures for the building of Senior Citizens accommodation were spun off by the government under control of the Corporation, and provision was made for the giving of grants to church groups, service clubs and other non-profit organizations or foundations to assist them in putting up lodges and other self-contained residential units in their local areas. Sixty-nine lodges, managed by independent foundations and in outskirting areas, have already been erected throughout the province.

A million gallons of water a day

Increased industrialization of once-rural areas is creating new and future demands for pollution-free water. A promising and practical solution in the form of a 35-mile pipeline carrying treated water from Edmonton to five municipalities northeast of the city was arranged this year. The line was built through co-operative efforts of the local governments and services provided by the provincial Department of Public Works.

The joint water supply system, operated by the Northeast Water Board, will provide enough water for domestic and industrial users in the areas for the next 25 years. While the design capacity of the line will meet all potential demands up to 1995, the system has a planned life span in excess of 40 years. One point will receive one million gallons per day. Built in three stages, under contract to private firms by tender, the actual planning and construction was co-ordinated by the Department of Public Works. Project financing was also arranged through the department in the form of a loan providing 20 per cent of construction costs. The remainder was financed by the municipalities concerned through the Alberta Municipal Financing Corporation. A similar line to Leduc was completed a few years ago.

New grass-roots team formed

Fanning out into five newly-defined areas throughout the province are members of a 5-man team formed to carry out a new regional concept of industrial development created by the Department of Industy and Tourism. The operational boundaries for each of these new Regional Development areas were developed using as a base; census divisions, population patterns, transportation patterns and general economic units. As a resident of the region, the officers will assist smaller centres which do not have a full-time industrial co-ordinator or commissioner.

The move marks the beginning of an active grass-roots plan for the future. It has been established to assist as many secondary manufacturers and firms as possible in marketing their products, developing export potential, or diversifying into a broader product range.

The representatives will work with federal and other available programs which the area may not be using to the best advantage. The Regional Industrial Development Officers will be located in Medicine Hat, Calgary, Lacombe, St. Paul and Peace River.

Today's railroad for tomorrow's loads

It's a major, down-to-earth railroading achievement in today's space age. Fully-loaded, diesel-powered unitized trains snaking through rugged mountain terrain. One-hundred-car trains weighing over 13,000 tons, that can unload on the move. Despite a near 2000-foot climb, the modern Alberta Resources Railway is meeting its service expectations and hauling capabilities. From the beginning, government planners specified a one per-cent grade factor would be necessary for the A.R.R. to meet today's shipping requirements and tomorrow's needs.

Now, the possibility of doubling, or even tripling, Alberta's multi-million dollar coal output from the immense coal reserves of the Smoky River valley near Grande Cache at the northern terminus of the line is a foreseeable reality. The movement of grain to the Pacific coast from the rich Peace River country by this shorter, more economical rail link will continue, with increases being scheduled. Railway spokesmen are now looking for possible pulp mill and iron developments up the line with meat packing and further plant build-ups in the use of by-products from the oil and gas industry.

Cutting new ground for agri-sales

A new movement to increase widespread use of modern marketing techniques is taking shape, based in and staffed by the Department of Agriculture. In line with trends towards marketing and merchandising, is the recent government appointment of an Alberta Marketing Commissioner. Provincial agriculture experts define one of the commissioner's primary job functions as being able to move quickly and freely through international trade circles to find new markets for Alberta's agri-products.

Included in the expanded 3-pronged program to develop export, domestic, and institutional markets, is the systematic monitoring of total department programs and the co-ordinating of all marketing efforts.

Underlining the over-all activities of the department to build agri-business within and outside the province will be support services. Their role will include the loaning of available staff to work with producer organizations, processors, farm organizations, boards, commissions, and liaison with other federal and provincial departments and agencies.

An initiating project this summer involved the Alberta Hog Producers Marketing Board and a jointly-sponsored travelling barbecue booth to promote pork.

Made to measure municipal progress

Detailing a controlled work and time frame for the orderly and economic development of built-up areas and backspreads of land of entire municipalities is the kind of study work continually being prepared by the researchers at the Provincial Planning Branch of the Department of Municipal Affairs, the executive arm of The Provincial Planning Board. This work includes such things as the existing and potential economic base, trends in population density shifts, present and projected traffic patterns, essential services required, and above all, human values.

Land use studies and the charting of regional and sub-regional plans are done for departments of the provincial government requiring land-use guidelines as well as established regional commissions, cities, and other planning agencies. In sparsely settled areas of Alberta, without a localized planning body, the Board recommends the establishment of new towns or other forms of compact resource development which the Branch interprets in the preparation of over-all plans for such developments. The ultimate over-riding factor in all planning by the Board and the Branch is to ensure that future municipal progress is made-to-measure within terms and conditions that bring about a well-balanced and wholesome mix in the inter-relationship of residential, commercial and industrial and other urban areas providing for a better urban environment.

JUNIOR EXHIBITION - GIRLS

On November 4th, Breton travelled to Drayton Valley to defend their win over the Warriorettes at the Thorsby tournament a few weeks ago. They were the only team to defeat our junior girls, and after Wednesday's game was over Drayton came out the winner. At the end of the first set the score was 15 - 7 for Breton, and we were doubful as to whether our girls would be able to beat the visitors. The next three sets, however, were clinched by Drayton with scores of 15 - 7, 15 - 9, and 15 - 9. The last set was won by Breton with a score of 15-5, but the Warriorettes already had the game.

Shirley Burkos, Brenda Streit and Linda Hinecker had the most point-scoring serves, and all the girls showed fine prospects for future Senior Warrieorettes.

JUNIOR EXHIBITION - BOYS

The junior Warriors had no luck with their Breton rivals on Wednesday night. They won only one game out of their five, but still showed some good ball-handling.

INTRAMURALS

Separate boys and girls volleyball came to a close last week with house 3 boys and house 1 girls being the house league champions. Mixed volleyball started on Tuesday and will last about two weeks.

REGIONAL TOURNAMENT

The Regional Volleyball tournament will be held here in Drayton Valley on November 14th. There will be five visiting teams to struggle for the first place trophy and the winner will carry the school colors on to the Zone Tournament. The general public will certainly be welcome to come and watch the school battle for first place.

INVEST IN REAL ESTATE
THE FORCED SAVINGS PLAN

REAL ESTATE IS A GOOD INVESTMENT

1. It is surrounded with substantial elements of safety, if wisely chosen and skillfully managed.
2. It cannot be easily dissipated.
3. If properly selected, it goes on reaping income year after year, despite changing business conditions.
4. Its outright owner is not subject to questionable managements by others, as in the case of industrial or business enterprises, and stocks issued by them.
5. Real Estate does not have to pay expensive underwriting and other promotional charges. Income, from properly chosen Real Estate will begin at once and continue unabated, paying a steady return in addition to any increase in value.
6. That Real Estate is not always a liquid asset is, perhaps, one of the most commendable features. This charateristic has saved many a person from losing money by investing in "get-rich-quick" schemes, that later proved failures. Likewise, an owner is not easily "rushed off his feet", in an unwise effort to dispose of it.
7. When you invest in Real Estate, you may go and look at it, and see that it is there. There is a sense of personal possession implied that is attached to no other form of investment.
8. Real Estate, being limited in amount, attaches itself monopolistic features, which capitalized into business use, bring profits to its owner.
9. You also receive the benefits of tax shelter by owning Real Estate.

Loved Ones

Embracing their loved ones with tear filled eyes
Last Departing words to hear take care, goodbyes
Then thousands marched row upon row
Soon to meet the deadly foe
Loved ones watched as soldiers board ships
As last farewells escaped their lips
The ships moved slowly they were loaded down
With men who loved freedom now seaward bound
Mothers, wives and girl friends too
Had courage and strength that was so true
Faith I'm sure they did not lack
I'll be waiting they said when you get back.

The months they waited led to years
And in that time shed many tears
Many killed was the radio's blare
When hearing this they could not bare
I wonder who they would say
To God for them we shall pray
They also prayed no news to hear
The death of someone they loved so dear
Years of sorrow have somewhat passed
V-Day ends the war at last
May God help man to abolish war
To maintain peace forever more.

Edges on the Figure Eight

The art of figure skating consists of four main divisions -- compulsory school figures, free skating, pair skating and dancing. These events are more frequently referred to as singles, pairs and dancing.

Figures -- The compulsory school figures are the foundation of good skating form. A skater must spend many long hours practising figures on a patch of ice about 20 x 40 feet to master the control needed to trace the figures exactly as required by the rules. There are 17 recognized figures and 69 variations.

Free Skating -- Free skating is the artistry of figure skating and the expression of the individual. A skater has perfect freedom to skate to the music of his choice and to include in his program whatever jumps, spins and footwork he pleases. This division seems to have more audience appeal.

Dancing -- There are two areas of dancing -- the compulsory dances and the free dances. There are 22 compulsory dances, skated to specified types of music of assigned tempo and to fixed patterns.

Pair Skating -- Pair Skating is similar to free skating. However, an accurate performance in unison is required of the partners. Both partners need not always perform the same movements -- they may separate from time to time -- but must give an impression of unison and harmony of composition, of program, and execution of skating.

Public Apology

A number of written statements concerning Robert A. The Drayton Valley and District Chamber of Commerce hereby disassociates itself from the statements about Mr. Doig purporting to have been submitted on its behalf and hereby expresses its sincere apologies to Mr. Doig for any injury, pain or annoyance which such statements may have caused Mr. Doig or his family.

SUB-MITS
FROM THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Belated congratulations to Miss Debbie Tam, (grade three) Miss Tam also received her B. Ed. degree at the Fall Convocation, but she was too modest to tell anyone about it. Miss Tam came to Canada from Hong Kong five years ago and has studied at Notre Dame University at Nelson, B.C. and at the U of A in Edmonton. She taught in Kelliher, Saskatchewan (population 400) which is quite a contrast to Hong Kong, where one high-rise apartment building has that many people. Miss Tam came here in September and enjoys teaching the younger children. Her hobbies include travelling and sight-seeing. She has already been from Vancouver to Montreal and parts of the States. She hopes to add more parts of the world in the future.

By the time you read this, your child will already have received, or will receive shortly, his first report card. Consider it carefully. It is an indication of his performance. In the interest of your child's ability and progress, the staff of this school are again holding an Interview Day. It will be on Monday, November 16th. Please check your time carefully. The teachers with over 30 pupils per room have interviews scheduled every 10 minutes all day long. This leaves little leeway if you are late. We are looking forward to meeting you all.

In conjunction with Interview Day, the Health Unit hopes to show a film of general interest to all parents. It will be run continuously in the gym, so if you can spare half an hour, feel free to pop in.

And yet another story from the Fire Drill Era. It seems that Mrs. Katyal was trying to impress on the children that their lives were more important than their personal belongings. Said one boy, "But I'm not going to leave my $20. boots to burn up."

And then Mrs. Hammerlindl tells this one. It seems that her class had a list of words and meanings to learn. One girl did not do well at all. Her explanation -- "I studied all the meanings but I didn't look at the words."

LIBRARY NEWS

The following titles are offered for your consideration.

"Treks Across the Veldt" by Theodore Waldeck as the title suggests is an account of a safari not only for big game hunting but to bring back specimens for zoos. This is shelved in the Juvenile section but should be of some interest to adults.

The Science Fiction buffs have three new books to choose from: "Moon of Mutiny" by Lester Del Rey; "The Wanderer" by Fritz Leiber; and "The Meeting Point" by Austin Clarke.

From last week's best seller list we have "Charity Girl" by Georgette Heyer-a cream puff confection with no plot to speak of. For this reader the amusing slang used was the most interesting feature of the book. Wonder how a writer manages to research nineteenth century slang?

The Stampede. Rip-roaringest rodeo of them all. It came bucking out of the chute in 1912 and hit full stride in the same rugged, robust era that launched Lethbridge Pilsner — both of them complete with a crazy cast of characters. They're part of a proud heritage, an unchanging tradition: Alberta's original rodeo and Alberta's original Pilsner, full of good old-fashioned flavour that's still going strong. So call for a beer with real beer taste: Lethbridge Pil. It's made for Great Moments.

This month comes with great regret
It brings back a day we can't forget
You passed away without goodbye
But memories will never die.
We miss you more than anyone knows
As each day passes the emptiness grows.
The tears we shed, we can wipe away,
But the ache in our hearts will always stay.
Sadly missed by her parents, grandparents Mr. and Mrs. H. Friendenberg of Buck Lake, Alberta.

Fire Plan Frustrated

By A. E. Bridges
Alberta Fire Commission

Do you agree that "The best laid schemes of mice and men Gang aftagley"? The reason is that both men and mice make mistakes added to which fate often takes a hand. What is hoped for often does not materialize and what is least expected does occur.

Apply this to fire prevention planning and see how a forgetful or malicious act of one or more persons can defeat much of the fire prevention efforts of code makers, builders, owners and occupants of buildings. For example, just last week the Fire Commissioner's Office investigated a fire that destroyed an apartment in an Alberta town. The apartment building was a new building built to the standards of modern building codes including enclosed stairways for exits, fire alarm systems, and modern safe heating and lighting equipment.

According to witnesses, fire in the middle of the night broke out and spread so rapidly that most of the fifty occupants had to escape from outside balconies. The built-in plans for fire safety were totally disrupted when stairway enclosure doors were in fact propped open and thus permitted the fire that was maliciously started in one starway at two floor levels to block hallways on two floor levels and cut off means of egress. Without the provision of the exterior balconies outside each suite, there would certainly have been loss of life, and a modern building that had sheltered fifty people is now reduced to ashes.

Never prop open a self- closing door since it is an important part of the fire safety design of the building.

Same Week (1969)	7553	3,391	4,162	1,748	1,207

SUMMARY

With the coming of snow and cold weather receipts of cattle and calves were sharply higher. Receipts included about 1,500 stock calves through-billed from B.C. to Ontario. Sales continue to be mostly replacement classes with stock calves comprising over 60% of all sales. Trade was active and strong throughout on all classes of slaughter and replacement cattle except cows. Butcher steers sold 1.00 - 1.50 higher. Butcher heifers a full 1.00 higher. Bulls 1.00 higher. Butcher cows 1.00 lower. Replacement steers 1.00 - 2.00 higher. Stock calves strong to 1.00 higher. Lambs steady, hogs uneven to lower.

SLAUGHTER CATTLE AND CALVES

Butcher steers opened strong to 50 higher and worked a further 1.00 higher in line with a strong market in other provinces. There were sales to 29.70 for choice good conditioned butcher steers as the week closed. Butcher steers over 1,100 lbs. and over-finished kinds were being discounted 50 - 1.00. Butcher heifers also opened strong selling higher and higher as the week progressed with a few sales over 28.00 as the week closed. Butcher cows sold slow and under pressure all week. Lack of demand saw prices gradually lower a full dollar on all classes with only the high yielding top quality cows bringing 19.00 or slightly higher prices. Bull prices were active under a good demand and top quality were 1.00 higher with a few sales over 23.50. Veal calves were very scaree at steady prices. Good butcher calves were selling mostly into the higher stock calf trade.

REPLACEMENT CATTLE AND CALVES

The replacement trade was very active and strong throughout the week with prices keeping in line with the higher slaughter quotations. Demand was good and competition keen for all classes. One package of 15 good feeder steers averageing 1,040 lbs. and selling for 29.85 early in the week set the pace for the rest of the week. Feeder steers sold from 1.00 - 2.00 higher for all classes with good feeder heifers 50 - 1.00 higher. Stock steer calves were mostly 1.00 - 2.00 higher with the odd lightweight selling to 45.00.
